

May

Ann Jamason

Ann Jamason returns to connect us with our night-time dreams and our inner guidance.

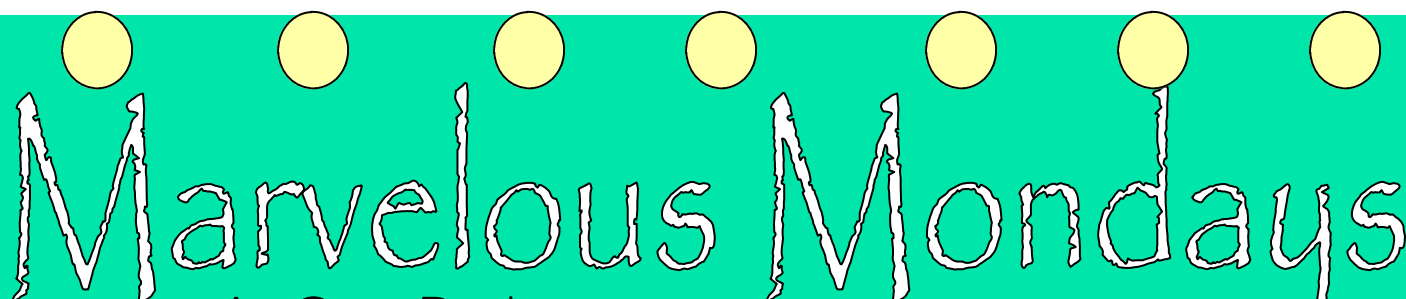

May 11th

June

Jan Scott

Jan Scott's career in District 6, teaching students with handicapped conditions has made her a "person of note" for sure. She also gives of her time with Habitat for Humanity. Jan will share her experiences traveling with Habitat to many foreign lands...building houses...that become homes...and touching lives. June 8th

Marvelous Mondays

An Open Book

- 5:00– 7:00 p.m. Program begins at 5:30 p.m.
- Reservations Required: $5 to reserve your spot call An Open Book (970) 330-7879

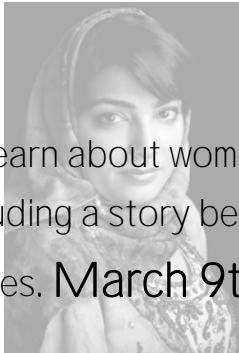

February

Chalice Springfield

"Living Juicy"

This interactive evening of fun and play is designed to show you how to live a life that is absolutely juicy! All you need is your creative and playful spirit and a desire to see how your life could be a little more juicy! Cost includes all materials for creativity sessions and a light dinner. $20/ person. February 9th.

March

Kay Sandmeier– Broderius

Learn about women behind a veil. The geography and lives of women in the middle east including a story behind the National Geographic's famous Afghan woman with the haunting eyes. March 9th.

April

Carol Ann Kates

Carol Ann Kates turned the closure of her family's 60 year old grocery business, Steele's Market, into a new career as an author and food manufacturer. She will share grocery-insider wisdom on selecting and storing perishable products from her award-winning cookbook, Secret Recipes from the Corner Market, as well as samples of her delicious line of gourmet food products, Corner Market Secret Recipes. April 13th.